

Administrative Council Minutes
MCG School of Dentistry
June 15, 2004

Present: Drisko, Caughman, Ivanhoe, Poter, Adair, Guinn, Adams, P Hanes, Weller, Crail, M Myers, C Hanes, Sisk, Barenie

1. Dr. Drisko discussed items from the MCG President's Cabinet meeting including an article regarding the new dental facility and the MCG Diversity Initiative.
2. Dr. Dan Rahn will make a presentation to the Board of Regents regarding the need for a new dental facility. He will present this as not just a new facility needed, but as a healthcare provision for the state.
3. There will be a meeting of the MCG Capital Campaign Steering Committee on July 15, 2004. Dr. Drisko requested information on cases that she could share in her presentation. Dr. DeLeon will also be presenting information on orthognathic cases conducted in conjunction with the School of Medicine. Faculty will submit information to Dr. Drisko.

Suggestions were made as to how to raise dollars for the capital campaign issues:

- Ortho Alumni
- Industry contacts & manufacturers
- Dental Supply Companies
- Dental Labs
- Power companies
- Hinman Dental Society
- American College of Prosthodontics
- Name Building after Dr. Judson Hickey
- Grateful patients
- Kodak – vendor
- Endo – military?
- GPR Alumni
- List of vendors from Accounting, Mr. Adams has major vendors
- Ft. Bragg – project for federal money for CE to fund several rooms
- Perio Alumni – endowment currently existing
- GA Society of Periodontics – good benefactors – possible pledge
- Oral Surgery residents – geared toward naming trauma professorship – Hickey Society

4. The GPR renovation has been funded. Faculty practice renovation was discussed.
5. New Faculty Recruits:
  - Dr. Yong Wang 1.00 FTE
  - Dr. Julie Addis .80 FTE
  - Dr. Brad Hall .90 FTE

6. Dr. Potter discussed accreditation issues
7. The faculty meeting scheduled for 6/16 has been moved to 6/22 for a presentation by Dr. Rahn regarding a new dental facility.
8. Three candidates out of 30 have been selected for interviews for the position of Associate Dean for Business and Finance.
9. The business office reorganization has been put on hold until a new associate dean is named. This will allow that individual to have input into restructuring of business operations.
