Student Concerns Regarding Educational Experiences Policy

Policy 2.14

Volume 2 Academic Affairs
Chapter 14 Student Concerns
Regarding Educational Experiences Policy

Responsible Office: Academic Affairs

Originally issued: unknown

Revised: 4/15/2009

Policy Statement

The components of each course of instruction and of each educational program at the Medical College of Georgia are carefully selected for content and suitability. Students at the Medical College of Georgia who anticipate problems in carrying out any part of their curriculum because of moral, religious, or other reasons must consult with the appropriate program or course director prior to enrolling or at the first opportunity following knowledge of such. Each problem will be carefully considered in an attempt to resolve the difficulty in a manner consistent with the educational standards of the Medical College of Georgia. However, the institution is not obligated to provide alternative educational experiences or to waive required parts of its courses or programs. Students with disability-related concerns should contact the Director of Campus Life Services.

Reason For Policy

The Medical College of Georgia is committed to presenting an exemplary educational experience for all its students. In meeting this goal, the components of each course of instruction and of each educational program are carefully selected for content and suitability. The Medical College of Georgia is aware, however, that a student might anticipate a problem in carrying out part of the curriculum based on moral, religious, or other reasons. This policy provides a mechanism for handling such a situation.

Entities Affected By This Policy

All students at the Medical College of Georgia are affected by this policy.

Who Should Read This Policy

All students and course or program directors at the Medical College of Georgia should be aware of this policy. Additionally, all faculty involved in course content or curriculum development should be aware of this policy.
