Policy for Overnight Guests in Residence Halls

Policy 6.08

Volume 6 Enrollment &
Student Services
Chapter 08 Policy for Overnight
Guests in Residence Halls
Responsible Office: Residence Life
Originally issued: August 1, 1968
Revised: June 13, 2008

Policy Statement

Students living in Medical College of Georgia residence hall facilities are permitted to have overnight guests under the conditions outlined in this policy. Guests are permitted to stay overnight in a residence hall for a period of up to 3 consecutive nights, with a maximum of ten nights per semester. Students must notify the Director of Residence Life of the overnight guest. Overnight cohabitation is prohibited.

Reason For Policy

Overnight visitation in residential facilities may create a more desirable living experience for students but is a privilege that can be abused. This policy is designed to prevent that abuse and states the conditions under which students living in Medical College of Georgia residence halls may have overnight visitors.

Entities Affected By This Policy

All students living in residence halls at the Medical College of Georgia are affected by this policy.

Who Should Read This Policy

All students who sign a contract for a room assignment in Medical College of Georgia residence halls must be aware of this policy.

Overview

This policy describes the conditions under which students may have overnight guests in Medical College of Georgia residence hall facilities. Guests are permitted to stay overnight in a Medical College of Georgia residence hall for a period of up to 3 consecutive nights, with a maximum of ten nights per semester.

Process/Procedures

For students to have overnight visitors in a Medical College of Georgia residence hall, the following conditions must be met, as stated in the Residence Life Housing Agreement.

1. Space in the residence hall must be available.
2. The student extending the invitation must be present during the guest's stay.
3. The overnight guest is acceptable to all roommates.
4. The student assumes responsibility for all the guest's actions, damages, and violations of rules.
5. Guest must adhere to all federal, state, and local laws and Medical College of Georgia Residence Life policies.
6. The student must notify the Director of Residence Life of the overnight guest (e-mail is sufficient).
7. Overnight cohabitation is prohibited.
8. Guests will be subject to immediate eviction if their behavior is deemed inappropriate. Failure to follow the policy set forth here and in the Residence Life Housing Agreement may result in termination of the agreement by the Medical College of Georgia.

Responsibilities

The responsibilities each party has in connection with Academic, Research, and Student Affairs Policy 6.08, Policy for Overnight Guests in Residence Halls, are:

Student	Notify Director of Residence Life about having the overnight guest.
Guest	Adhere to all Medical College of Georgia Residence Life policies and all federal, state, and local laws.
Director, Residence Life	Discusses violations of policy with student and makes decisions regarding consequences of a violation.
